BRONSON ADDRESSES TUCSON ESTATES AT COMMUNITY INFORMATION NIGHT

Tucson, AZ --- At a recent meeting of the Tucson Estates Community, Pima County Supervisor Sharon Bronson addressed a standing-room only crowd of approximately 250 residents at a Community Information Night.

Staff members from Pima County Development Services, Department of Transportation, and Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation joined Bronson as major issues such as pending development of the Mountain Vista Shopping Center (on the northwest corner of Ajo Way and Kinney Road) were addressed. This parcel was rezoned in 1988, and Pima County will work with the developer, businesses, and residents to insure there is little or no impact to the existing community. Roadway safety issues must also be addressed to handle the increased pedestrian and vehicular traffic this center will bring. Additional discussions surrounded future plans for recreational facilities in the area.

“I think that the large crowd attending our meeting demonstrates the high level of interest that everyone out here has in keeping up-to-date with what is going on in the surrounding areas.” Said Rodger Sorenson, Chairman of the Tucson Estates Community Action Committee.

The evening was part of Supervisor Bronson’s continued effort to reach constituents in her 7,403 square mile district, covering all of western Pima County and parts of the Tucson metropolitan area. If your community group would like to meet with Supervisor Bronson, please call (520) 740-8051.
